Customer Reviews

Short essays from a variety of sources provide diverse perspective, but actually there's a lot of redundancy among selections and essays lawyers may well have already seen. I'm afraid I can't recommend this book, as I believe it's way overpriced for the retread. And the introduction recommends reading the essays or sections "as needed" and mark up the book as a "workbook": problem is the landscape format makes it clumsy to handle in that way. This would have been better issued in a pocket-book format with margins or additional blank pages suitable for jotting notes & ideas as they occur to the reader.

Realistic, dont think so much to buy this book, just BUYYYYYY. I strongly recommend... when you finish to read it you will feel very confident about your practice
