Customer Reviews

If you are looking for a quick and informative guide to a career in entertainment law then this is your book. The author packs her book with links/ postings where law students may find awesome internships. Very helpful to law students at any year!

Super useful information for someone who is trying to get themselves together and get serious about entertainment law. Does everything work? I can't say- only time will tell for me. For now, it's still great information.

Great book. Great author. Ms. Thomas knows the industry and how to maneuver it. I highly recommend it for law students, practitioners, or anyone interested in getting into the professional entertainment industry.

Very informative for anyone thinking about going to grad school. She also provided resources to find a job and different organizations to join. It's a bible for law students. Great read very informative book. tons of useful and practical information on anyone interested in practicing entertainment law. i love this book. packed full of great info and inspiration
